

Super

There's only one symbol to look for Industry SuperFunds are run only to benefit members, have low fees and have never paid commissions to financial planners. They have a history of strong long-term performance. With over 5 million members across a range of industries already with a fund that carries the symbol - there's an Industry SuperFund for you. Just look for the symbol to know you're in good hands.

Visit industriysuper.com for more information.

Banking

ME is a bank but one with a difference.

To us it's very simple. The banking world is cumbersome and complex, more obsessed with themselves than their customers. At ME we are working hard to move on, to reinvent and to really do the things that will liberate Australians to help them get ahead. We want to make things easier, put their dreams within reach, and enable them to live the lives that they really want. That's why we run a dedicated program of offers for members of unions and industry super funds. Check out our exclusive offers:

mebank.com.au/benefitsunions

Financial Advice

First established in 1994, IFS has been supporting industry super funds, unions and their members for over 25 years. Leveraging its deep expertise, aligned ownership and commitment to always putting members' interests first, IFS offers a range of services including:

- Financial advice: helping members achieve a secure retirement with trusted, fee-for-service financial planning services
- The recovery of unpaid super: protecting workers from non-payment of their SG entitlements.

Visit ifs.net.au for more information.

Further Information

For more detailed information on the services listed, call 1300 486 466 or visit australianunions.org.au

Join your union

If you are not already a member, joining a union is your best way to protect your rights at work and the life you enjoy outside of work.

Union members are in a strong position to secure higher pay and better working conditions through collective bargaining. And it's proven that having union members in the workplace can lead to better health and safety.

No matter what your job is or what business you work for, there's a union for you. Membership fees are fully tax deductible and our Member and Financial Benefits can save you money.

Join online at australianunions.org.au or call 1300 4 UNION or 1300 486 466.

Get more out of life with Union Member Benefits

australianunions.org.au

To request copies of our Member Benefits brochures call 1300 486 466 or email memberbenefits@actu.org.au

ACTU D No. 29/2019

Australian Unions
Member Benefits

Australian Unions Member Benefits are provided to every union member through the ACTU in partnership with your union.

As a union member, you can take advantage of the collective buying power of more than 1.8 million members to get big discounts from a great range of companies.

Through our partnership with Member Advantage we offer union members an exciting range of benefits and savings on hundreds of everyday expenses, including gift cards, accommodation, movie tickets, insurance and much more.

Australian Unions
Member Benefits

Get more out of life with Australian Unions Member Benefits!

Save on Movies

Want to get a great deal on movie tickets? Union members can make big savings on Village, Hoyts and Event movie tickets. Adult and Children's tickets are available at heavily discounted prices - check our website for details.

You can decide whether the tickets are posted to you or have digital tickets sent by email and accessible on your computer, smartphone or mobile device.

Save on Car Hire

Planning holidays? As a union member, you'll get great rates! Visit our website to find out more and book online for the best rate.

Save on Gift Cards

Looking for the perfect gift, or left your purchase to the last minute?

Union members can now purchase eGift cards at discounted prices; includes Woolworths & Coles, The Good Guys, Flight Centre, Rebel Sport and JB Hi-Fi retailers. The digital gift cards are sent by email and are accessible on your computer, smartphone or mobile device.

Save on Travel

Do you deserve a break? Australian union members can now access significant savings on hotels worldwide. When planning your next holiday, check out our booking site for great accommodation savings!

Win!

Member-only Competitions

Every month, union members win big prizes with our exclusive competitions. To join in call 1300 4 UNION or go to australianunions.org.au

Visit our website to join in and save with these great offers!
australianunions.org.au/member_benefits