

Wednesday, 16 May 2012

Occupational Health and Safety – Medical appointments

Congress calls on the ACTU to undertake research on behalf of Affiliates relating to the practice of employers directing workers to attend medical or associated appointments e.g. functional capacity assessments with the intent of using these reports in a punitive or discriminatory manner. Furthermore we strongly oppose any employer or their representatives attending any medical examinations.